

The Crafter/Gamer

Aaron Mark Sass (FCAS 2021)

1994-2023

Aaron Sass died in August 2023. He is survived by his parents, Bruce and Ellen Sass; brothers Brian (Kris) Sass-Hurst and Matthew (Katie) Sass; nephews Ezra and Charlie; grandfather, Homer Sass; and many extended family members. Born and raised in Columbus, Ohio, Sass attended Worthington City Schools and The Ohio State University. Sass excelled academically and athletically. He was a pole vaulter for the Worthington Kilbourne High School track and field team and played soccer and football. Sass easily met and made many meaningful friendships that lasted into adulthood. He and his friends loved playing video games together on weekends to unwind. He used his sharp intelligence to routinely hone his chess skills. His longtime partner, Molly Berlin, and he had a great love for their dog, Philbert. Sass enjoyed traveling, exploring and jokes. He took great pride in perfecting his crafts of cooking, baking and coffee brewing. With family, Sass always paid special attention to young cousins and nephews to keep them entertained. He was a loving brother and always willing to help when needed.