Our Roadmap for the Future: The CAS Strategic Plan

CAS Strategic Plan

Long Term Future
The CAS will be recognized globally as the premier organization in advancing the practice and application of casualty actuarial science and educating professionals in general insurance, including property & casualty and similar risk exposures.

CAS Strategic Plan

Is our roadmap pointing us in the right direction?

What do you think?

Strategy: Basic Education

 The CAS will provide a basic education system that reflects contemporary and relevant analytical techniques and business skills utilizing new technologies for delivery and validation.

Strategy: Basic Education

- Increase the scope and breadth of statistics on the syllabus and decrease the amount of less relevant material.
- Increase the use of technology in the delivery of educational material and in the validation of candidates' mastery of the syllabus.
- Improve communications and relationships with candidates and academics.

Basic Education: Statistics

- No major changes in preliminary exams content
- New Statistics exam is designed to cover:
  - Markov Chains, MCMC, GLMs and extended linear models, Decision Trees, Spatial Statistics, Visualization & Fit, and familiarity with other modeling techniques (neural nets, ensemble methods, etc).
- New Statistics module will demonstrate how statistical techniques are applied to actual case studies in ratemaking, reserving, and enterprise risk management.

Basic Education: Technology

- Admissions Technology Task Force aimed at finding solutions to allow candidates to take exams in more real-life situations:
  - Word for responding to an essay questions
  - Excel for crunching through a reserving triangle
  - R to analyze large databases for Stats exams
- The new technology may also change how we grade and may evolve to greater use of multiple choice questions on upper level exams.

Basic Education: Communications

- Increased communication with candidates through articles in Future Fellows.
- Increased communication with academics through the University Liaisons, Student Central, and Academic Central.
- Greater use of social media, blogs, and online communities.

Basic Education: Expectations

- Aiming for new Statistics exams to be ready in 2016 or 2017.
- Continuously improving communications of Admissions-related developments to students, candidates, academics, employers, and members.
- Keeping the Syllabus "net neutral" in terms of content, number of hours, etc.

Basic Education: In Summary

- 100-year history of educating casualty actuaries and testing their knowledge
- Curriculum reflects the judgment of practicing casualty actuaries who understand what it takes to be successful in the casualty actuarial field.

Basic Education: In Summary

- CAS education relies on subject matter specialists to develop questions that are relevant to actual practice and that appropriately test a candidate's ability to apply theory to real-life situations.
  - CAS Admissions Committees: 600 CAS Fellows with combined 5,000 years of experience
  - Exam Committee leadership: 23 Fellows with average of 19 years of experience

Strategy: Continuing Education

 Continuing professional development programs will support the needs of all members globally in established and emerging areas of expertise.

Strategy: Continuing Education

- Progress to Date:
  - Considering international demand and delivery to this audience.
- Strategic Focus for 2014:
